DEDICATION.

We Dedicate this Book—

To the Memory of our Worthy Ancestors, Jacob Wismer and Danny, his wife.

PREFACE.

A number of the Wismer connection in Bucks Co., Pa., Canada, and elsewhere, desiring a history of the Wismer family compiled for publication in book form, requested us to undertake the work, and as a mark of favor and kindness towards those friends, we kindly consented.

As is usually the case, in the compiling of family genealogies, the work is not as complete as it should be, owing to the failure of some of the connections to respond to our communications to furnish us with their family records, and other information they possessed.

We feel indebted to many of the friends for their kindness in furnishing information for this genealogy. Prominent among those who have interested themselves in the work, and given us valuable aid, by furnishing us much information are: Eli Wismer, Plumstead, Pa.; Aaron Wismer, Jordan Sta., Ont.; Reuben W. Kratz, Pomona, Kans; H. W. Gross, Doylestown, Pa.; Samuel Nash, Doylestown, Pa.; Tillman W. Moyer, Campden, Ont., and others.

THE AUTHOR.

INTRODUCTION.

Deeds of great men live long after them. Monuments rear their lofty heads to perpetuate their memory or commemorate some remarkable events in which they moved as leading factors. Historical volumes hand down to future generations the details of their achievements as monarchs before whom nations trembled and vanished; as warriors whose word of command spread death and desolation through the world; as statesmen whose political abilities proclaimed liberty to millions of the human race, and as religious reformers who suffered persecution and martyrdom that the light of Gospel doctrine might shine over the whole earth and dispel the darkness of superstition,—the idle fancies, rigor or excessive exactness in religious opinions and practices.

In introducing this volume to the descendants of our pioneer American ancestor, we do not claim for him any famous deeds as a man of renown, but a noble courage and a virtuous and exemplary character, embodied in a person, who never rose above a humble position in life, which, if strongly formed in the people of a nation, does more towards promoting its prosperity and welfare than the courage and character of many men of fame.

— VIII —

Any one somewhat acquainted with the early history of our country well knows, that the principal motive that led many people from different parts of Europe to come to America, was to escape from the various religious persecutions which they had to endure in their native countries. That our ancestor, Jacob Wismer, who settled in Bucks Co., Pa., about one hundred and seventy years ago, was one of those who abandoned the land of their births, and faced the dangers and hardships which confronted the early settlers in the New World, we have reason to believe; not from a positive knowledge of facts prior to his arrival in America, but from subsequent events in connection with the organization of the Mennonite Congregation at Deep Run, of which he was one of the leading originators.

It is not only a pious but an instructive task, to collect and preserve the memorial of our ancestor who, in making himself a home in the wilderness, also complied with the Divine command to the ancestor of the human family, and laid the foundation of a family, in number, of thousands, whose members are now spread far and wide over the United States and Canada. People who fail to appreciate and cherish the virtues and exemplary deeds of their ancestors, however humble their position or insignificant their acts, are not likely to transmit anything worthy of remembrance or imitation to their descendants.

Let us pause and reflect. Let us draw a comparison of the period of our ancestor in the “fatherland,” and the land of his adoption. Persecutions and intolerance in the Old World. Savages and forests in the New.

How the hearts of our fathers must have beat with mingled joy and sadness when they bade adieu to their native land and set sail for the New World. Behind them the homes of their births and rulers intolerant and oppressive. Before them the vast ocean and a land of liberty of conscience. What a contrast they must have felt after having been established in their new homes on American soil; no more bound down by the whims and caprices of tyrannical kings and rulers. These were the preliminaries that our family encountered. Few of us have tasted hardships like unto his. All of us may enjoy the gifts, the benefits and the advantages which promote our temporal prosperity and welfare, or secure our immortal felicity. Surely such blessings should awaken the gratitude of all who partake thereof.

Representatives of the family fill many important and prominent positions in the walk of life. They may be found, not only among the tillers of the soil and mechanics, but also among teachers of our public schools, and ministers of the Gospel; among the medical and legal professions, among editors and publishers of religious and secular papers, and among professors of advanced institutions of learning.

Turning over the leaves of this volume may be a melancholy task to some of us. There are names in it that revive no remembrance of those that bore them; and there are others which bring before us very distinctly the forms and faces with which we were once familiar. Many of the names have long ago been chiseled on the grave-stones of their owners, to remind us of friends whose book of life was closed long ago. There are also names that belong to those who are still living and some of whom are very dear to us. It is rather a humiliating reflection that this thing of rags and sheepskin will outlast many generations of us. In the course of time its leaves will become discolored with age, and all will decay. But of the human volume it is only the binding that decays. The contents are immortal, and if found worthy will re-appear with rare embellishments where the mildew of time can never mar them.

ELI WISMER.

LIST OF EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS.

In the preparation of this work it will be observed that all descendants are recorded in the regular order of birth, from the oldest to the youngest, each generation being marked consecutively from first to last. The Roman numerals placed before each name indicates the generation to which they belong, as:—

- I. Jacob Wismer (First generation).
- II. Jacob Wismer (Second generation).
- III. Rev. Abraham Wismer (Third generation).
- IV. Barbara Wismer (Fourth generation).

Beginning with the first (I) ancestor, Jacob Wismer, all his children are named in the order of birth as near as possible. Then follows his oldest son, Jacob Wismer (II. Generation), and his children (III. Generation) next. Rev. Abraham, being the oldest, is followed down to the last of his descendants; then the second in order of birth of the III. Generation, and so on until the end of the entire branch of Jacob Wismer of the II. Generation is reached. Then the second child of Jacob Wismer of the I. Generation, viz.: Elizabeth (Wismer) Angeny (II. Generation), is carried down in like manner to the last of her descendants, and so on throughout the entire connection.

Where marriages occur between members of the connection, the husband carries the record. In all such cases a numbered reference is placed after name and marriage of the wife, as, for example: (See Index of References No. 1). In the Index of References will be found No. 1. Catharine Gross, Page —. On the page given, in the body of the book, the family records will be found.

In the General Index will be found the names of all the descendants of eighteen years and over, also the pages on which their family records are given in the body of the book.

To find family records see Index of Branches, where names of all that had issue of the first, second, third and fourth generations are given.

Abbreviations: Mrd. signifies Married; bn. born; Dec'd. Deceased; S. Single; Montg. Co. Montgomery Co.; Twp. Township; ch. church; Menn. Mennonite; Ev. Ass'n. Evangelical Association; Presby. THE WISMER FAMILY HISTORY.

I. Jacob Wismer, ancestor of the numerous family of that name in Bucks and Montgomery Counties Pa., and other portions of the United States and Canada, was born in Germany about 1684, and died in Bedminster Township, Bucks Co., Pa., Feb. 4, 1787 in his one hundred and third year.

The precise time when he emigrated to America is not known, but may have been as early, or before 1710.

The place of landing is also an unsettled fact. It is admitted by most of his descendants that he landed on one of the Carolina States.

By some it is thought that the site of Charleston in South Carolina had been the place of landing, and that he had taken up land in that section. Others state that he landed in North Carolina* which is thought to be the most probable, and he may have been one of the number of a hundred German families, who, driven from their homes on the Rhine by persecution, and in 1709, settled along the Roanoke and head waters of the Neuse river, in N. C. At the outbreak of the Indian war, led by the Tuscaroras, the savages, on the night of October 2, 1711, fell with such fury upon this German settlement that one hundred and thirty of them perished. That he had been among the unfortunate emigrants in this German settlement is not in the least improbable, although there is no positive proof that such was the case. A tradition of the family says, that a sister accompanied him to America, that after they settled, the Indians fell upon them and killed the former, the latter held out some tobacco before the savages, which caused their savage nature to yield to such an extent that he was enabled to make his escape. It is said that after he made his escape he walked and ran ninety miles in one day. He traveled north as far as Byberry in Philadelphia County, Pa., from whence he later, moved to Bucks County.

*W. W. H. Davis' History of Bucks Co., states that he emigrated to North Carolina, where he lived ten years, etc.

The motive that impelled the Wismer ancestor to these shores is not known, but undoubtedly was on account of religious persecution which raged in the father-land, and which was the chief cause of the emigration in those early days of so many of the pioneer fathers to the New World where no cruel persecution was waged against the devout worshipers of God. Here was a refuge for the oppressed people of God, of other nations, and hither they came by the thousands where they might worship God under the bright sun of religious freedom, untrammeled and unoppressed.

As to his nationality, it has been insisted upon by some that he was an Englishman, but of this there is no proof in fact. On the contrary, evidence points more directly and conclusively to German nationality.

The fact of his having been a member of a distinctively German church is strong evidence in favor of Germany having been the father-land.

The deed of William Allen to the denomination of Mennonites for fifty acres of land at Deep Run, was drawn in favor of six persons, who are named in the deed as being members of said denomination and who are supposed to have been the principal or leading originators of the Deep Run congregation. Among the six was Jacob Wismer, who, we have every reason to believe was the ancestor, or Jacob the first, and which shows that he was a Mennonite, and worshiped with German people, and from which we infer that he himself was a German.

Also the fact that there are now in the United States, Wismers who were born in Germany and Switzerland, and that there are to this day Wismers still residing in those countries is strong evidence against the Bucks County ancestor's having been an Englishman.

An aged lady still living in Bucks Co., a great-granddaughter of Mark Wismer, son of Jacob the first, relates that she heard the oldest of her ancestors say that Jacob Wismer came from Germany.

She also says that among her great-grandfather Mark Wismer's books, was an old German Bible, strongly bound, with brass plates and clasps, that had belonged to Jacob Wismer, and contained a record of his family.

After Mark's death the Bible came into the possession of an aunt to the lady referred to, and later was owned by herself, and was finally destroyed by fire during the burning of her house.

Jacob Wismer was the first white man to settle upon the tract he purchased in Bucks County.

Tradition says that the party who brought him from Byberry unloaded family and effects under a big tree in the woods, and on leaving him gave the following tart advice, "Now Wismer work or die."

In what year he settled in Bucks County is not positively known, but is supposed to have been in 1726, in which year the first sum of money was paid by the Leeches. According to the contract of Penn and Aleok, the rent on the tract did not become due until the tract had become occupied, hence there is evidence of considerable weight showing the time of settlement to have been as stated.

The tract on which Jacob Wismer settled in Bucks County, previous to his purchasing it, was comprised of 375 acres, and which William Penn Proprietor and Governor of the Province of Pennsylvania, granted and conveyed by indenture on the 16th of July 1691, unto one Jeffrey Aleok of Ordslyford, County of Chester, Kingdom of England.

Aleok was held by the same indenture under a yearly rent of one shilling for every one hundred acres, to become due and payable as soon as occupied. On the 6th of February 1723 Aleok granted and conveyed the same tract to Peter Dicks of Upper Providence Chester Co., Pa., under the same rent as Aleok. On May 22, 1725, Dicks granted and conveyed the same tract to John Leech of Philadelphia, and his brother Isaac Leech of Cheltenham Twp., Philadelphia Co. Up to this time the tract had been unoccupied and indefinitely located (in the Province of Pennsylvania towards the Susquehanna river). By order of Jacob Taylor surveyor general under date of January 28, 1726, the aforesaid tract was located, surveyed and laid out unto Leech and brother by Thomas Watson, County surveyor on the 3d of February 1726, and for which they probably paid £60 lawful money of America, and which was the first sum paid for the entire tract.

On Apr. 29, 1727 John Leech granted and conveyed his share of the tract unto his brother Isaac, who in his will, bearing date Oct. 14, 1744 authorized and empowered his wife Rebecca, and brother Thomas Leech to convey to Jacob Wismer, and other persons in the will named, the 375 acres.

On May 17, 1749, Rebecca Leech and Thomas Leech gave title to Jacob Wismer of Bedminster Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania for 210 acres being the south western portion of the 375 acre tract, and for which he paid £100 lawful money.

On the 12th of April 1773, Jacob Wismer sold the tract to his son Henry of Hilltown for £500 which was to be paid in installments after his (Jacob's) death to his nine children. About the same time he made a will in which he stated the time when the share of each should become due after his death. The amount of £54 12 s. 6 pence was the sum that fell to each of the nine heirs; viz., Jacob, Mark, Abraham, Daniel, John, Christian, Mary, Elizabeth and Nanny.

Henry the purchaser of the Homestead received no share of the £500.

Jacob Wismer's son Henry, and son-in-law Henry Kephart, were appointed executors of his estate.

The old Homestead is divided into six tracts and occupied as follows,— Abraham Wismer, a great great-grandson of Jacob Wismer, and great-grandson of Henry Wismer of the second generation, owns the old homestead with 72 acres; Samuel Wismer, brother to Abraham Wismer mentioned above, owns and resides upon a tract of 49½ acres on the S. W. and 6 or 8 acres S. E. of the homestead belong to David K. Landis; William D. High, is the owner of 90 acres on the N. E.; Jacob M. Rush, owns 5 acres which is surrounded on three sides by the High tract, and Jacob D. Swartz owns 11 acres S.W. of High's tract.

Towards the close of his life his occupation was that of wheelwright, and which he may have carried on in connection with farming for many years.

He is said to have had three wives, and was married to his third wife after coming north about 1720, and with whom he lived 67 years, she being 84 years old at the time of his death. Her Christian name was "Nanny," and she was the mother of all his children. Her maiden name is unknown, but it is known that the children and grandchildren received legacies from one Jacob Sowder, and it is presumed that she was the daughter of Jacob Sowder.

*A pear tree raised from a seed which had been planted by Nanny is still standing on the homestead a living monument to the memory of the distinguished couple. Thirty five years ago it was the most magnificent tree known in that vicinity. In wonder and astonishment, it is said, many a mortal stood gazing at its stately form and admiring its magnitude, a strange contrast to its primitive state. Age and storms have overcome its strength, and greatly reduced and diminished its former usefulness and noble appearance.

It is not known that Jacob Wismer ever held any official position in the county or township, but he was a petitioner for the new Township of Bedminster, as the "Jacob Weismore," signed to the petition for the township in 1741 was no doubt meant for Jacob Wismer.

*Extract from sketch of Wismer family, by Eli Wismer, of Plumstead, Pa.

At the time of his death he had one hundred and seventy children and grandchildren.

Although living to the great age of 103 years, he retained his mind until within about two months, and could walk out and dress and undress himself within about two weeks of his death.

The remains of himself and wife were no doubt laid to rest in the grave-yard of the Old Mennonite church at Deep Run, the scene of their zeal for God's cause, and where for many years they worshiped the God of their fathers, and left to their numerous posterity an undying example, to "go and do likewise." And so shall they remain until that day when the great angel shall descend from heaven with a shout, and swear with a solemn oath, that "time was, time is and time shall be no more," when God shall again quicken the bones, and bid the sleepers come forth. Then may it be their great joy to see their numerous posterity safely sheltered in the fold of the great Shepherd, and together join in the triumphant shout of the redeemed.

The children of Jacob and Nanny Wismer, as near in the order of birth as could be placed were:— Jacob, Mary, Elizabeth, Joseph, Henry, Mark, Daniel, John, Christian, Nanny, Abraham.

DESCENDANTS OF JACOB WISMER, SON OF JACOB WISMER.

II. Jacob Wismer,* bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., about 1721. Mrd. Margaret —. The dates of death of himself and wife are not known. He received his portion of his father's estate in 1783. Lived in Plumstead Twp. at what is known as the burnt mill, where he followed the occupation of miller. Children: Abraham, Isaae, Anna, Mary, Elizabeth, Jacob, Mary, Barbara, Hannah, Margaret.

III. Rev. Abraham Wismer, bn. in Bucks Co., Aug. 21, 1746. Mrd.—. He was familiarly known as Abraham Wismer, the "long-beard." It is related that as he and his nephew, Martin Overholt, were coming near where a number of people were gathered, some one among the crowd seeing his long snowy white beard, inquired, "What is that coming there?" and another replied, "Why, that is preacher Wismer; he has swallowed a white horse and that is its tail hanging out of his mouth." Martin Overholt, who heard the remark, became very angry, and was about taking off his coat to resent the insult when his grandfather laid his hand on his shoulder, holding him back, saying, "Du musst nicht fechten." Abraham Wismer was ordained to the ministry of the Mennonite church at Deep Run, where he served as one of the ministers. Children: Barbara, Margaret, Elizabeth, Hannah, Magdalena.

* Jacob Wismer's old family Bible, printed in Nurnberg, Germany, in 1736, containing his family records, is now in the possession of his great-grandson, Jacob L. Shaddinger, of Hilltown, Pa.

The first 19 years of his life were spent on his father's farm in Canada. Hard work, limited school privileges, but with some extra study enabled him to pass his examinations, and began teaching at the age of 20. For 18 years he continued teaching with slight interruption. His fields of labor having been in Canada, Illinois, Missouri, and Kansas. In 1859-'60 a few terms in Clark Seminary, Aurora, Ill., aided him in making a start in the classics. He prized his mother-tongue, and taught classes in German in the Public Schools of Independence, Mo., in 1868-'70 and in Wyandotte, Kan., from 1872 to 1875. In 1879 he engaged in editorial work on the Wyandotte Gazette, later called the Kansas City Gazette, until 1887 when he sold his half interest in the paper, and engaged in banking, being (1892) Vice President of the Wyandotte National Bank, and Treasurer of the Kansas City Savings Bank. VI. Rebecca Nash, bn. in Haldimond Co., Ont., Jan. 15, 1839; died Sept. 24, 1862. She attended the common schools of her section until her 18th year. But desiring to pursue a more complete course, preparatory thereto she attended a Grammar school, but on account of ill health she was compelled to discontinue her school attendance.

When about 17 years of age she began teaching school, and continued, except when attending school, until within about three months of her death. When in her 18th year she was converted and soon after united with the Ev. Ass'n church, and though often in darkness, with conflicts, doubts, and fears, yet bright hope as often intervened to cheer and light her path until the end came, and the crown won.

Among her writings were many pieces of her own composition, mostly of a religious character, that speak well of her poetical talents. We make room for one written for an intimate friend and schoolmate.

RESPONSE.

You smooth the tangles from my hair
With gentle touch and tend'rest care,
And count the years ere you shall mark
Bright silvery threads among the dark,—
Smiling the while to hear me say,
“You'll think of this again some day!
 “Some day!”

I do not scorn the power of time,
Nor count on years of fadeless prime;
But no white gleams will ever shine
Among these heavy locks of mine.
Ah, laugh as gaily as you may,
You'll think of this again some day,
 Some day!

Some day I shall not feel as now,
Your soft hands move about my brow;
I shall not slight your light commands,
And draw the long braids through my hands;
I shall be silent and obey,—
And you—you will not laugh that day,
 That day!

I know how long your loving hands
Will linger with these glossy bands,
When you shall weave my latest crown
Of these thick braidings long and brown;
But you shall see no touch of gray
Adown their shining lengths that day,
That day!

And while your tears are falling hot
Upon the lips which answer not,
You'll take from these one treasured tress,
And leave the rest to silentness,
Remembering that I used to say,
“You'll think of this again some day,
“Some day!!”

V. Rebecca Nash, bn. Nov. 27, 1812; died Aug. 16, 1884. Mrd. David B. Moyer, Mar. 4, 1833. Farmer. In early life they were Mennonites, but during the great revival of God's work at the "Twenty" in Clinton Twp., Lincoln Co., Ont., in 1849-1851, they experienced the grace of God in the renewal of their hearts, and subsequently united with the Evangelical Association church, of which they remained faithful and active members until death. Children: Samuel, Mary, Anna, Barbara, Eli, Elizabeth, David, Simeon.

VI. Rev. Samuel N. Moyer, bn. Aug. 10, 1834. His early life was spent on the old homestead farm at the Twenty up to about the age of twenty years. During the winter months he attended the common school "in dem Schulhaus an der Krick." In Jan. 1854 he commenced teaching school, taught three months, and was paid $11.00 per month and board. The following year he also taught three months, and then decided to make teaching his life work, and at once took a course in the Normal school, and followed the profession of teaching until 1868. In the 15th year of his age he was converted, and united with the Evangelical Association church. In 1857 he commenced to exercise his talents for the Lord in the Sabbath-school work, and weekly tract distribution in Port Elgin, where he was teaching. This he followed up for years both summer and winter. He was also appointed Class-leader at the first organization of the Ev. Ass'n church at that place in 1859. During these years he was impressed, and knew that he should go forth as a herald of the cross of Christ, but his unfitness seemed so great that he dared not venture to let even his dearest friends know of his convictions. Finally, through the searching inquiry of a father in Israel, he yielded his assent, and was given work as a local preacher in 1867. At the next Annual Conference held in Blenheim Twp., under the Presidency of Bishop Joseph Long, he was licensed as probationer, and sent as Junior preacher to Upper Wolwich Circuit to assist Rev. Theo. Hand. In 1869 he was sent to Blenheim Circuit alone; Hamburg Circuit, 1871-1872; Lincoln and Gainsboro Mission, 1873-1876, and

Campden Station one year; Hespeler Mission, 1877—; Credition Station, 1880—; Hespler Mission, 1883—. In 1884 he was elected Presiding Elder and sent to the Ottawa District, and also as pastor of the Golden Lake Mission. In 1887 he was stationed on the North District, and 1889 on the West District. He was ordained Deacon in 1870 at Credition, and Elder in 1872 at Lingelbach's church. Preaching Christ and pointing sinners to the Lamb of God, has been and still is the greatest joy of his life, and the Lord has richly crowned his feeble endeavors to glorify His name, and given him many seals to his ministry on every pastoral charge he has served. In Sept. 1858 he was married to Martha Jane, daughter of Benjamin and Lavina Brown, of Gainsboro, Ont. She died without issue, May 21, 1871. For second wife he mrd. Mary Anna, widow of Conrad Seibert, and daughter of William and Anna (Schweitzer) Lingelbach, June 4, 1872. P. O., Sebringville, Ont. Children: (VII.) Ida Susanna Moyer, bn. VI. Daniel Albright, bn. Jan. 10, 1859. Mrd. Elizabeth Krupp, of Lansdale, Pa., Oct. 11, 1883. His boyhood days were spent on his father's farm in Hilltown, Pa. When 16 years of age his father died. At that time having shown some proficiency in his studies, his teacher Miss Emily Rowland, advised him to prepare for the profession of teaching. Having a great desire for knowledge, and receiving encouragement at home, he concluded on a course, and in the spring of 1875 entered the Millersville, Pa., State Normal School, where he remained a number of terms, after which he received license to teach, and taught the home school in his native township for six months. Feeling a lack of qualifications to teach properly, and detesting the yearly examinations for provisional certificates, he concluded to overcome these obstacles, and returned to the Millersville Normal School and completed a Normal course, taking the degrees of Master of the Elements, and Elementary Didactics, completing the course in 1880. In the fall of 1880, he took charge of a school in Lancaster Co. and became principal of the Borough Schools of Sellersville, Bucks Co. in the fall of 1881, where he taught two winters, and where he, during the summer of 1882, conducted a teacher's training class, enabling several pupils to pass satisfactorily the Superintendent's teacher's examinations. In the fall of 1882 he received the appointment of Principal of schools of the borough of Lansdale, Pa. where he remained two years. Then resigned, and discontinued teaching for a time, and later took charge of the schools of North Wales for one term, then taught a school in Durham Twp., Bucks Co., two terms. He then became ambitious for the position of County Superintendent of Bucks Co., and being solicited to become a candidate, he consented, but was defeated by a small majority. In the fall of 1887, he took charge of the schools at Hatboro, Pa. for one term, then quit teaching and entered the service of the Phila. and Reading R. R. serving one year as Station Ag't at Lansdale, after which he received the position of Freight Ag't at Phila. Meth. Ep. Children: (VII.) Mary Albright, bn. May 22, 1886. (VII.) Karl Albright, bn. Apr. 13, 1892.

VI. Titus Albright, M. D. bn. in Bucks Co., Feb. 4, 1861. Mrd. Lizzie E. Eckel, in 1883. At the age of seventeen years he entered the Millersville State Normal School taking a two years course, after which he taught school three consecutive winters in his native township. In the spring of 1882, he entered the office of his preceptor Dr. Harvey Kratz for the purpose of reading medicine. In the fall of '82 he was admitted to the University of Penna. Medical Dept., where he graduated in the spring of 1885. In the fall of '85 he located at Hatfield, Montg. Co., to practice his profession, and where he still resides and enjoys a lucrative practice. Children: (VII.) Eva Viola Albright, bn. Apr. 1, 1884. (VII.) Blanche Albright, bn. Feb. 17, 1886. (VII.) Markley Cameron Albright, bn. Mar. 6, 1888. (VII.) Robert Burdette Albright, bn. V. Lavina High, bn.—. Mrd. Thomas Kooker,—.

V. Barbara High, bn. in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Aug. 29, 1827. Mrd. Aaron Andrews, in spring of 1849. He was bn. in Rockhill Twp., Oct. 19, 1823; died in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., May 13, 1861. Carpenter and miller. Luth. One child:

VI. Reuben High Andrews, M. D. bn. in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 20, 1850. He was the only child of Aaron and Barbara Andrews. His father was for some years a "boss" carpenter, and later on purchased a small tract of land along a creek in Hilltown Twp. located about a mile west of Dublin, near the site of an old saw mill. He erected a dwelling house and a grist mill, and the family lived there until the father died.

Reuben, after the death of his father, went to live with his grandfather Andrews in Marlborough Township near Berkleyomenville, Montg. Co., but in less than two years his grandfather also died and he went to live with his mother, who about this time married again to Henry S. Krout, a farmer of Bedminster Township, Bucks Co. There Reuben worked on the farm, attending the district school during the winter months.

When about eighteen years of age, he attended the boarding school then known as the Excelsior Normal Institute situated at Carversville and prepared himself for teaching. He taught his first term of public school at what was then called the Upper Sellersville School. After this he attended one term the Keystone State Normal School at Kutztown. This followed by another term of teaching, this time his own district school in Bedminster Township. At the same time he commenced the study of medicine under the tutorship of the family physician Dr. Moses Rice, of Hagersville. While engaged for a few months as a substitute teacher in New Britian Township, Dr. Rice was taken ill and died. He continued his studies with Dr. Rice's successor, a Dr. Klingerman, but subsequently the late Dr. J. H. Krause of Plumsteadville became his preceptor. He entered the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania, and graduated in the spring of 1874. On the fourteenth of April of the same year he entered upon the practice of his profession at Kulpsville, Montg. Co., where he soon gained a liberal patronage. In the fall of 1875, he married Miss Mary M. daughter of Nathan Beidler, of Bedminster, Bucks County. In the spring of 1876, he moved to Lansdale on the N. P. Railroad where he soon purchased a lot and erected a dwelling and an office. While here engaged in the active duties of his profession, he conceived the idea of publishing a monthly Medical Journal; and in March 1879 issued the first number of "The Medical Summary." In the early part of 1881, he bought a half interest in the "Lansdale Reporter," the local and weekly newspaper and printing establishment, and in the summer of the same year built a home and office for this business on Main Street called "Reporter Building." In the spring of 1884, on account of failing health, and rapidly increasing duties professionally and with his Medical Journal, he sold his practice and dwelling to Dr. Samuel Seese. About the same time he bought a house on Twenty-third street Philadelphia, where he removed with his publication, "The Medical Summary." Here he lived about a year, sold his property and removed to Lansdale, buying a building lot adjoining his former home. There he at once commenced to build one of the finest residences in that section at that time, and also at the same time buying the other half interest in the "Reporter" newspaper and printing business. This business he conducted himself along with the Medical Journal for about a year when he sold the entire interest of the Lansdale Reporter Printing and Publishing business and shortly afterwards returned to Philadelphia, on Columbia Avenue, where, since selling out his practice in Lansdale, he has devoted almost his entire time, doing only a select practice, to his medical publication "The Summary."

The monthly issue of "The Summary" has not been less than 10,000 copies for several years past. It is a national Journal circulating in every state and territory of the United States, and some in foreign countries.

He has three daughters, the two older ones, at the time of the publication of this book, are attending the Twelfth Grade in the George G. Meade, Grammar School Philadelphia. (VII.) Lottie Grace Andrews, bn. Feb. 24, 1877. (VII.) Florence Mabel Andrews, bn. Jan. 4, 1879. (VII.) Beatrice Lilla Andrews, bn. Dec. 12, 1885.

Of these children Elhanan and Benny met with a very sad death. Clarence the eldest had gone to Port Providence for the mail, and when returning was met about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile from home by his brothers. By the roadside was a sand hole, into which all jumped except little Louis. Suddenly the overhanging bank gave way and buried the three eldest and the fourth all but his head. Albanus told Louis to give the alarm, and help soon came. Albanus was rescued uninjured. Clarence was next reached, and was supposed to be dead, but was resuscitated in a little while. As soon as possible Elhanan and Benny were reached, but both were dead, though only covered with eighteen inches of sand. The funeral of the two boys was largely attended. The ministers present were Rev's. C. I. Tompson, Jacob Meyers, Jacob Gottwals and C. C. Walker. The sight was a sorrowful one, and many a strong man broke in tears as they gazed upon the little forms so suddenly cut off upon the threshold of life.

V. Hannah Shattinger, bn. July 19, 1836. Mrd. Prof. Thomas O'Neill, of Philadelphia, Apr. 24, 1856. Res. 2405 Master St., Phila., Pa. Professor of Music. Prof. Thomas O'Neill was born in Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 14, 1829. At a very early age he evinced a talent for music which he gratified by writing notes to any thing in the form of a melody that he heard whistled or sung. A talent, however, which his father thought not to encourage. In 1856 he became organist and choirmaster of the Broad Street Baptist church in Philadelphia. He was subsequently induced to remove to Norristown, where for many years the music at the Frest Presbyterian church of which he was organist and choirmaster, was an attractive feature of the services. After ten consecutive years of service as principal of the music department at the Oakland Female Institute, at Norristown, then a flourishing school for young ladies, he voluntarily resigned the position at the seminary in order to attend to outside teaching. Quite a number of his pupils occupy prominent positions.

Mr. Elnord Beaver, a competent church organist of Norristown, was under his instruction for five years, and Miss Anna L. Cressinan, who succeeded him as organist at the F. P. ch. was his pupil for a like term of years. Among his brightest pupils is his daughter, Mrs. J. Jay Gheen, of West Chester, who is a pianist of such signal ability that her music is not only a joy to her, but is an unfailing source of pleasure to her large circle of friends.

Mr. O'Neill's compositions are characterized by an originality and depth of feeling which proclaim him to be a composer of decided talent. His "Morning Song" and "Among the Birds" are little gems, while his "Good-bye, Sweet Day" has been described as "a charming little bit of music, of that plaintive tone that never fails to touch a responsive chord in the heart of the listener." As a lecturer and writer, Mr. O'Neill also deserves mention, his letters (as special correspondent) to the Norristown Herald, are graphic, complete and interesting in the extreme, he possesses that rare faculty of putting into words the impression conveyed to his own poetic soul by beautiful music and brilliant effects, and some of his letters on this subject are the most charming we have ever read. Mr. O'Neill, Presby. Mrs. O'Neill, Baptist. Children: Carrie, Margarete, Thomas, Samuel.

In his youth Mr. Detweiler attended school in winter, and assisted his father on the farm along the headwaters of Deep Run.

The year following his marriage he took charge of his father's farm, of which he later became the owner, and on which he resided until the date of his tragic death. On December 8, 1892, between the hours of six and seven in the evening, he left his home on foot to transact some business affairs with a neighbor, distant about one mile. He did not return at the expected hour, and about midnight members of the family went to the place he had intended to visit and learned he had not been there. A searching party immediately started over the rout, through woods and fields, supposed to have been taken.

Between two and three o'clock his lifeless body was found in a shallow pond of water, in his own woods, about fifty rods from his house. His coat and vest were open, his watch and money were missing. Suspicions of foul play were fully aroused, and were confirmed by further investigations. In a line from the spot where the body was found, about one fourth of a mile in length, along the trail of strange and peculiar footprints, were found an account book, and a purse and wallet from which the contents had been removed, all of which were identified as belonging to the deceased. An autopsy also revealed a number of contusions, caused by blows on the head. Great excitement prevailed in the vicinity, and hundreds of people visited the spot and surroundings daily. Detectives were immediately employed. The county authorities offered a reward of $500 and a citizens' meeting of the surrounding vicinity an additional reward of $1000 for the apprehension and conviction of the guilty person or persons.

His remains were interred at the Deep Run Mennonite church of which he was a member. On Dec. 12, an immense throng assembled to pay their last tribute of respect. By actual count over 325 carriages left his late residence in the funeral procession. He was much esteemed and highly respected by hosts of relatives, friends and acquaintances.

VI. Daniel M. Landis, M. D., bn. in Milford Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., April 17, 1864. Soon after his birth his parents moved to Hilltown Twp., where he was brought up on the farm. He was always fond of going to school, and always had the good fortune to be at the head of his class. In 1879 one of his teachers, Mr. A. R. Moyer, imbued him with the spirit to go to a high school, and accordingly in March, 1881, he was sent to the Quakertown High School. In the summer he worked on the farm again with his father. The next winter, 1882, he resided with his uncle, Dr. S. C. Moyer, and attended the Lansdale High School. His residence here no doubt had something to do with his future profession. In the fall of 1883 he began teaching school, and taught for three successive winters. In the spring of 1884 he went to the North Wales Academy one course. He took up the study of medicine in the summer of 1886, with his uncle, Dr. S. C. Moyer. In the fall of that same year he entered the Hahnemann Medical College of Philadelphia, Pa., from which he graduated in April 1889 as Doctor of Medicine, and Doctor of Homeopathic Medicine. In April of the same year of graduation he located at Perkasie, Pa., where he is still practicing his profession. He was mrd. to Lizzie Hedrick, daughter of David and Sarah Hedrick, of near Chalfont, Pa., in 1889. Menn's. One child: (VII.) Joycelin Landis, bn. May 2, 1892; died July 16, 1892.

V. Henry G. Moyer, bn. in Bucks Co., Aug. 28, 1848. Mrd. Emeline Seiple, of Allentown,—. P. O., Perkasie, Pa. Mr. Moyer spent his boyhood days on his father's farm in Hilltown Twp., and attended the common schools of the township and several terms at the Leondonian Seminary, and graduated in the Philadelphia Business College at the age of 20 years. He spent the next 15 years as clerk in store, three years at Blooming Glen and several years in Philadelphia, in the wholesale notion house of Mackey, Bodder & Co., and 10 years with J. A. Hendricks at Perkasie. In 1879, when Perkasie Borough was founded, he was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace, and on May 10, 1890, he entered upon his third term, having now served about 13 years in that capacity.

The latter part of 1881, he engaged in the newspaper business, and in company with Mahlon H. Sellers, under the firm name of M. H. Sellers & Co., established the "Central News," a local weekly paper. In Feb. 1882 Mr. Sellers died, and his interest in the paper was purchased by Samuel R. Kramer, and since then the firm name has been Moyer and Kramer. The "News," after hard struggling in the beginning, soon obtained a firm footing and is now recognized as one of the leading papers of upper Bucks

Co., with a circulation of over 2000 copies weekly. Mr. and Mrs. Moyer are members of the Evangelical Association church at Perkasie, of which he is a class-leader, and in this capacity has done considerable public speaking. Children: (VI.) VI. Abraham O. Roth, bn. Nov. 19, 1861. Mrd. Kate Alderfer, June 16, 1886. Two days after their marriage June 18th, Mr. Roth took his newly made wife back to her parents from the Roth homestead, and while returning to his home he took a friend, Peter Roth, with him in his carriage, and took the road to Sellersville, where they had some business to attend to. As they were crossing the rail-road track at Clymer's Crossing, they were caught by a wreck-train, and the newly made husband was instantly killed, while Peter Roth escaped serious injury. Thus the young couple were married only two days when they were separated by death.

DESCENDANTS OF HENRY WISMER, SON OF JACOB WISMER.

II. Henry Wismer, bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., about 1730; died —. Mrd. Barbara Lederach in 1754. He was an enterprising, shrewd and prosperous man. From old documents in the possession of his descendants it can be seen that, of the entire family of Jacob Wismer, he (Henry) was probably the most prominent in wealth and business abilities. Agriculture was his chief pursuit. In 1773 he became owner of his father's farm of 210 acres in Bedminster. At the same time he had a farm in Hilltown of 140 acres, on which he lived and died. In 1793 he sold the home-stead with 120 acres to his son Abraham, and the remaining 90 acres to one Ekel, and in 1805 he sold his Hilltown farm to his son-in-law John Funk. He received a life right for himself and wife. Funk was to reside on the farm and take good care of the old couple. He was bound to provide all the necessaries and comforts for old age, even to the point of carrying their firewood into their room and furnish them with five gallons of whiskey yearly as long as either of the old folks lived. Weaving and distilling whiskey were also carried on in connection with farming. Judging from items entered on his Day Book from 1768 to 1800, we are led to believe that persons in need of money and work depended in a great measure on him for assistance. It also appears that a few of his brothers were dependant on him for support towards the close of their lives. In 1803 he made a will, which reads as follows:

In the name of God, Amen. I, Henry Wismer of Hilltown township in the county of Bucks and state of Pennsylvania we were being of old age and weak in body but of perfect sound mind and memory thanks be to God therefore calling unto mind the mortality of my Body Do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner following, first of all I Reccommend my sould into the hands of the almighty god that gave it and my body, I Recommand to the Earth to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named, and Touching such worldly Effects which it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I Give and dispose of the same in manner following. First of all after my debts and funeral charges is paid I do Will all my money that I have in hand and all my effects to my well beloved Wife Barbery as much as she pleases to keep of it, then it is my Will that my Executors hereafter named shall make a vendue and sell of my Effects what my wife don't want to keep, & Collect the money and Give it into the Hands of my widow that she may dow with all the money that is in hand and what will be made of the vendue what she pleases during her lifetime and after her decease my Executors is to make sale of the effects that is left and pay it to my heirs. Some has got more away and some less, and so my Executors must pay to the eleven heirs of the money that is left and what will be made of the effects after my wifes decease to make them all alike, only my son Samuel he is not to Sheer with the rest because he has got his three hundred pounds beforehand if there is not anuf of the money that is left and maid out of the effects then my Executors must take of the three hundred pounds which is to be paid down of the plantation and make them all alike. My son-in-law John Funk is to pay 14 hundred pounds for my plantation, three hundred pounds in one year after my decease and then yearly and every year one hundred pounds is to be paid till the whole is paid and still as the payments is paid my Executors is to pay it to my eleven heirs sheer and sheer alike. Notabena my Daughter Nancy is to have 20 pounds less than the other heirs, because the 20 pounds goes to her 2 sons of her first husband. As soon as John Funk pays the three hundred pounds the first payment I Give my son Abraham Wismer one of the Executors full and ample power to make and execute a sufficient Deed of Conveyance unto the said John Funk clear of all encumbrance as well as myself could done if I was living. Notabena, I do will to my two Grandsons Jacob and Henry Rute ten pounds apiece to be paid out of their mother Nancy's Portion to be paid out of the first payment of the plantation if there is any left. And last of all I do hereby Anominate my son Abraham Wismer of Bedminster Township County of Bucks and state of Pennsylvania and John Funk of Hilltown Township my son-in-law and County and State aforesaid to be my sole Executors of this my last will and Testament and I do hereby utterly Disallow and Revoke all former Testaments wills Legacies and Executors. Relating this and Confirming this to be my last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six.

Mrd second wife Mary, a widow of Detweiler (maiden name Freed). Farmer. Menn. ch. He was the third owner of the Wismer homestead. During the Revolutionary war, his father's teams were pressed into service by the Americans, and Abraham was sent along as teamster, more to take good care of and return the teams. In 1783 Abraham Wismer and one Martin Lowry buried the remains of the notorious outlaw, Moses Doane, who was shot along the Tohickon, on a farm adjoining the Wismer homestead. Mr. Wismer often referred to the mournful appearance of the procession to the grave, composed of a few neighbors, two females, and a small dog. The women wept bitterly, and the dog showed his grief by stepping to the edge of the grave and looking into it. Children: Henry, Samuel, Isaac, Barbara, Catharine, Veronica, Abraham, Elizabeth, Esther.

(VI.) Newton Stover, bn. —. (VI.) Ann Eliza Stover, bn. —. Mrd. —. (VI.) Emma Stover, bn. —. (VI.) Fannie Stover, bn. —.

IV. Samuel Wismer, bn. Jan. 10, 1780; died Oct. 2, 1851. Mrd. Susanna Detweiler. She was bn. —; died July 16, 1864, of paralysis. She was found prostrate in the yard shortly after breakfast, life extinet. Her age was 83 y. 11 m. 1 d. On the occasion of her funeral 160 carriages accompanied her remains to the place of burial.

Mr. Wismer was a farmer, sawyer, and weaver. He had but three days' English schooling, yet he was a fluent English and German reader, and also wrote both languages, keeping his accounts in the English language. He was a self-educated man, settling up estates, in the neighborhood, and transacting various other public duties in a time when there were but few lawyers to advise and counsel. His six daughters had five spinning-wheels in operation at one time, and the sixth daughter did the reeling, and the father the reading in the evening. His children do not remember of having received a cross word from him. His family government was mild yet firm. Each daughter received a spinning-wheel as part of her "outsetting". Several of the daughters learned to weave and did considerable of it while at home. Five of the daughters had a silk wedding-dress, though most of their every-day wear was homespun. The old time lard lamps were used in the family, hot bricks being put under the lamps to keep the lard warm and thin. Rye bread was the staff of life. All the girls made full hands in the hay and grain fields, and raking leaves in the woods. Some of them also aided at the saw-mill. Menn. Children: Abraham, Elizabeth,

John, Samuel, Barbara, Catharine, Fannie, Susanna, Sarah, Deborah, Henry.

V. Abraham D. Wismer, bn. Aug. 10, 1802; died Aug. 17, 1882, aged 80 y. 7 d. Mrd. Catharine Myers, May 3, 1827. Farmer. Menn. Children: Isaac, Hannah.

VII. Lizzie May Steiner, bn. Nov. 10, 1882.

VI. Reuben N. Kratz, bn. in Wayne Co., O., July 2, 1845. In early life Mr. Kratz taught in the public schools, and also conducted singing-schools in the vicinity of his former home in Wayne Co., O. He was married to Amanda M. Miller, of Akron, O., Sept. 11, 1873. In 1882 they moved to Mitchell, South Dakota. He has been variously occupied as lumber merchant, land office clerk, land attorney, and at present occupies the position of Register of U. S. Office at Mitchell. He was also one of the founders of the University of Dakota, and is a member of its managing board. He is also prominent in religious circles, and is President of the South Dakota State Sunday School Association. Meth. Ep. Children: (VII.) Frank E. Kratz, bn. Oct. 11, 1874; died July 6, 1878. (VII.) Fred M. Kratz, bn. Feb. 21, 1879. (VII.) Carl Samuel Kratz, bn. Feb. 13, 1888.

VI. Henry Elton Kratz, M. A., Ph. D., bn. in Wayne Co., O., Oct. 14, 1849. He prepared himself for college in the common and high schools of his native state, and supported himself by teaching. He first entered Denison University, Granville, O., where he remained two years, and then completed his collegiate course at Wooster University, Wooster O., graduating with the degree of B. S. in 1874. Later the degree of M. A. was granted him by his Alma Mater. He at once entered upon the work of teaching, and has been Superintendent and Principal of schools in several important cities, principally those of Bucyrus, O., and Dexter, Mich. In both of these states he was frequently engaged in the institute work by the side of their best educators. In 1881, he went abroad, taking his family with him, and during two years resided in London. While in Europe he made a special study of systems of education, and methods of instruction. He met many of the leading educators of the Old World, and became familiar with their theories. Opportunities were offered him to observe school work there which he readily and profitably availed himself of, and returned to this country. The year 1885 found him installed in the schools of Mitchell, Dakota, as Superintendent, a position he held for four years. He organized and graded these schools and put them in a condition second to none in the Country. His pupils have found easy admission to the schools of our leading cities. He promptly identified himself with the educators of the state, and has been present at every important educational meeting in Dakota since 1886. When the Educational Association organized the reading circle department he was made the chief officer, and in turn made the reading circle one of the vital educational forces of the state. He was three times unanimously chosen president of the State Educational Association, an honor not before conferred on any member. He was also prominently mentioned for the position of Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction. At the first election for state officers, the leading educators and teachers all over the state made urgent appeals for him to consent to become a candidate for the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Against his better judgment he was finally induced to make an effort to secure the Republican nomination. Unfortunately preceding nominations on the ticket, bunched the nominees in his part of the state, and he was defeated, although even then he received a large number of votes in the convention.

In the spring of 1889 he was called to the chair of Pedagogy and principalship of the Normal Department of the University of South Dakota. He also completed a post graduate course in Philosophy and Pedagogy in Wooster University, and received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

In November 1891, he was unanimously chosen Superintendent of the Sioux City, Iowa, schools, to succeed Prof. Chas. W. Deane. He completed the year's work in such a satisfactory manner, that he was unanimously re-elected for two years at a salary of $2,500 per year. Sioux City has a population of over 40,000, about 6,000 children are enrolled in her schools and 140 teachers are required to instruct them. From this it can be readily inferred that Dr. Kratz's present field of work is a broad one, and his responsibilities great.

In addition to his other duties he conducts Teachers' Institutes, lectures from time to time, and occasionally contributes articles on educational topics to the press, and is Director of the Lake Madison Chautauqua Assembly at Lake Madison, South Dakota. Taken altogether, it may readily be seen that Dr. Kratz is an exceedingly busy man. He was married to Lizzie M. Deal of Bucyrus, O., July 19, 1876. Meth. Ep. ch. Children: (VII.) Horace Elton Kratz, bn. Nov. 12, 1877. (VII.) Bessie May Kratz, bn. Jan. 2, 1879. (VII.) Arthur Murray Kratz, bn. Nov. 5, 1880. (VII.) Edward Mars Kratz, bn. Oct. 13, 1891.

VI. Jacob Kratz, bn. in Wayne Co., O., Feb. 7, 1855. Mrd. Acelia Kindig, Mar. 1, 1876. P. O., Shepherd, Mich. Farmer. Meth. Ep. Children: (VII.) Anna M. Kratz, bn. Jan. 1, 1878. (VII.) Harvey D. Kratz, bn. Sept. 27, 1879. (VII.) Infant, bn. July 9; died Sept. 19, 1881.

VI. Lee G. Kratz, bn. in Wayne Co., O., July 27, 1858. He inherited musical tastes from his parents, both of whom were lovers of music, and each possessed gifts and accomplishments exceeding ordinary attainments. He early exhibited marked endowment with these family traits, was diligent at school, and availed himself of high school privileges at Seville, O. After his father's death and breaking up of the old home, he went to live with his brother Reuben in Akron, O., where he entered High School and came under the notice of Prof. N. L. Glover, the instructor in music, under whose influence and counsel he decided to make music his life study and work. For two years he engaged in teaching school, all the time pursuing his study in music. He attended Ohio Normal Music School three terms, and spent one term in Dana's Musical Institute at Warren, O. Later he entered the College of Music at Cincinnati, O., where he graduated in 1882, with second honor of his class. He afterwards engaged in the work of his profession at Davenport, Iowa. Here his influence was felt as a teacher and organizer of Church Choirs, Quartettes, Male Choruses, and as author of musical compositions. His work in building up the Vocal Department of St. Catharine's Hall secured complimentary recommendation from Bishop Perry, of the Episcopal church.

In 1887, desiring larger opportunities and fields he removed to Omaha, where success and prosperity has invariably attended all his enterprises, making him a typical Western man in spirit and work. He is Director of the Vocal Department of the University of Omaha, has three church choirs under training regularly, and is constantly giving concerts. He organized and is Director of the celebrated "T. K." Quartette, also the "Owls," a popular male chorus of 40 voices. Mr. Wismer was one of the best known citizens in the county of Lincoln, Ont., having through official business and otherwise become known to a large number of persons. While young he enjoyed the few educational advantages which the county afforded. After marriage he engaged in farming in which he was very successful. In Jan. 1861, he offered himself for municipal honors, and by a majority of one vote, was elected a member of the township council, in what was undoubtedly the sharpest contested Municipal election ever held in the county of Lincoln. He was a member of the Twp., council for eight successive years. In 1870, he was elected Reeve of Louth Twp., which office he held for seven years. In 1875, he was elected Warden of Lincoln Co. He served as a member of the Louth Twp., council for 16 years. He lived on the shore of Lake Ontario, where he owned a farm of 80 acres which he sold for $12,000, and his estate at his death was worth $20,000. He was well known as a sterling and upright man, and a faithful worker for the best interest of the people, and enjoyed the high esteem of all who knew him.

Apr. 15, 1845. Children: Samuel, Esther, Jacob, Catharine, Mary, Elizabeth, Abraham. For second wife Abraham mrd. Mary, daughter of Joseph Overholt, and widow of Abraham Bean, in 1847. She was born in 1804; died in Kent Co., Mich., in 1889. One child: Sarah.

He was the fourth owner and occupant of the Wismer homestead. During his early life he also distilled whiskey from apples on the farm. Thousands of bushels of apples were thus disposed of in the neighborhood. About 900 gallons of whiskey was the yield in a good season. This occupation so far carried on by every generation had its career ended by the subject of this sketch, who, from his earlier experience, and a full realization of the danger to, and demoralizing effects on the rising generation, could without the surrender of any convictions, abandon the heretofore popular "Still."

Mr. Wismer and wives were members of the Old Mennonite church at Deep Run, of which he was a deacon thirty years. During his term as deacon some stirring events took place ending in a division of the church. He was a popular man in the community, well read and posted in the ordinary business transactions of his day. Settling estates, clerking sales, writing wills and agreements, &c, occupied part of his time.

V. Samuel Wismer, bn. Nov. 14, 1814. Mrd. Elizabeth Knlp, —. She was born June 11, 1823. P. O., Plumsteadville, Pa. Farmer. Resides on a part of the old Wismer homestead. During his early life time he had two remarkable escapes. When a few years of age lightning struck his father's house. The electric bolt descended through the chimney, followed the pipe to the stove and went through the floor within a few feet of where he lay asleep in a little bed.

While yet a boy he and his brother Jacob were sent to cut up a tree top. Jacob, who was several years younger, seized the axe and slashed around among the limbs. The result was startling. Samuel was standing near by on the ground while Jacob was perched a little higher. The axe descended and made a clean cut through the hat to the skin of Samuel's forehead without drawing any blood or making a scratch. Mr. Wismer is a highly respected citizen, and he and wife are members of the Mennonite ch., Deep Run. Children: Eli, Anna, John, Mary, Elizabeth.

VI. Eli Wismer, bn. Jan. 25, 1844, on the southwestern part of the original tract, in Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. He received a common school education in the district school at Deep Run, which was open four months and towards the close of his school days five months in a year. In 1865 he received a certificate from the Superintendent of Public Schools, to teach in the county. He taught four terms in his native township, and one at Plumsteadville.

He was appointed Assistant U. S. Marshall to take the ninth Census of Bedminster Township in 1870. In the same year he was married to Annie Myers, daughter of Joseph Myers, of Plumstead Township. She was born June 29, 1846. In 1871 he commenced farming on the farm on which he was born. At the organization of the Plumsteadville Dairy Men's Association in 1880 he was elected Secretary and soon after salesman for the association, which position he holds the twelfth consecutive year.

His father's teaching, in early life impressed on him the evils arising from the use of intoxicants, and during the Constitutional Amendment Campaign he was among the leading agitators in his community to prohibit the manufacture and sale thereof as a beverage. * Buildings were erected on the other 50 acres in 1843 and since occupied by Samuel Wismer. So far every transfer was made from father to son, either by private sale, will or agreement. Jacob willed the homestead to his son Levi, and a life-right to his widow. Levi refused to accept it under the provisions of his father's will, and this forced it to be offered at public sale in Feb. 1891, for the first time since it was occupied by the first ancestor Jacob Wismer about 165 years ago. The record of from father to son was also broken at this sale, the purchaser being a brother, and the occupant a nephew of the former owner.

V. Reuben W. Kratz, bn. in New Britain, Bucks Co., Pa., Feb. 23, 1838. In the fall of 1852 his father and mother died in the space of five weeks. Left an orphan at the early age of 14 years, he went to Plumstead, Pa., where he attended one winter term of school. In the following spring he hired to H. K. Myers for eight months at farm work. Then apprenticed to his brother Abraham at wagon-making, serving one year and nine months. In the spring of 1856, he faced towards the West, believing there were better things in store for the young than in the densely inhabited East; went to Whiteside, Co., Ill. and worked at wagon-making, breaking prairie with an ox team, threshing, &c. In 1860 he married Ema-line A. Swena, of Sterling, Ill. In the spring of 1863 they loaded their goods and effects in an old wagon and started for Kansas. Their whole wealth consisted of a team, wagon, bed, stove, a few minor articles of household goods, and $21 in cash. They started for a point in eastern Kansas to find a home for themselves, and on May 10, 1863, located where they now reside, in Appanoose Twp., Franklin Co., Kans. P. O., Michigan Valley, Kans. Here they lived in a log cabin with puncheon floor and clapboard roof. In August Mr. Kratz joined the state Militia, and served in Kansas and Missouri 18 months. While on such duty the family remained without a protector, and he had permission to go home at times and get supplies for their maintenance. The nearest mill was 20 miles away and run only one day in a week. The nearest trading store was at Lawrence, 32 miles distant. The Militia was disbanded in 1864, and from that time Mr. Kratz was able to be at home and care for his family. Neighbors were a long distance apart. No settlement except along the streams, and it was common to visit neighbors 10 or 12 miles distant. The Sac and Fox reserve was near by and Indians were plenty, but always peaceable and friendly. Mrs. Kratz was left alone one night, and sleeping with the doors open, several Indians entered to inquire for whiskey. She informed them the whiskey, if there was any, was at the wakeup, about three miles distant, and they retired.

In the winter of 1865, through the kindness of two of their old neighbors in Illinois, Messrs. C. C. Alexander, and John Benjamin, who advanced the money, they were able to buy a stock farm of 152 acres; 37 acres of this was afterwards sold to assist in paying for the balance. In 1878, Mr. Kratz purchased 240 acres, making a farm at this date of 355 acres. In the spring of 1866 he erected a log cabin 16x16 feet foundation. This the family occupied until the fall of 1873, when a more commodious house was built, but this the family soon outgrew, and in the spring of 1886 a house costing over $3,000 was erected. In an early day Mr. Kratz determined to give strict attention to raising stock, and he has never allowed himself to lose sight of this idea. He has at times 150 head of cattle, 40 head of horses, and 200 hogs feeding, making a specialty of fattening beef cattle. The business has not always been prosperous, owing to grasshoppers, chinch bugs and dry weather. School facilities have always been good—probably as good as many in the older states. Mr. Kratz has served on the School Board in his district 24 years. He and wife are members of the Congregational ch. Children: Frances, William, Horace, Lemuel, Amy, Harriet, Esther.

IV. Christian Wismer, bn. Apr. 13, 1817. Mrd. Mary Cassel, Dee. 3, 1837. She was bn. Apr. 24, 1814. Retired farmer. Mr. Wismer is a man of venerable appearance, who with his wife have been faithful members of the River Brethren church at Lawndale, Pa., for many years. About 30 years ago he was ordained deacon, and in the faithful discharge of his religious duties it has been his chief joy to see his beloved Zion prosper in the Lord, while his patriarchal appearance, and presence in Zion is a source of inspiration to his fellow laborers in the Master's cause. In old age he is still abundant in labors for his Redeemer, and a crown awaits him beyond. "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." Children: Susanna, Sarah, Elizabeth, Jacob, Mary, Joel, David.

VI. Rev. Christian W. Ruth, bn. Sept. 1, 1865. Mrd. Emma J. Springer, of Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 19, 1885. Res. 305 S. Penna. St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. Ruth lived with his grandfather, Christian Wismer, on the farm for several years; he then went to live with his uncle Jacob Wismer, who was a merchant and tailor, remaining until 1882, when he went to learn the printing trade in the office of John G. Stauffer, of Quakertown, Pa. After serving his apprenticeship, he was recommended as being competent of taking charge of an office, and accordingly was employed as foreman of a printing office in Indianapolis, Ind., Apr. 1, 1884.

In July 1884 at the age of 18 years he received local preacher's license, and began preaching. In the fall of this year he resigned his position as foreman of the printing office, and began to travel as an evangelist or revivalist on the interdenominational line, laboring in any church where called. He is a member of the "Heavenly Reeruit Association" church, for which denomination he has established some churches in Indiana. He was ordained, and received Elder's license in July

1889, but by request continued as an evangelist. Up to date he has conducted revival services in thirteen states, and all through the Province of Ontario. Since 1884 he has traveled about 8,000 miles annually. In revival work he has been eminently successful. He has not attempted a revival at any place where he has continued a week or more, without some converts, and he has frequently conducted revivals where more than a hundred were converted in a few weeks. V. John Fretz Funk, bn. in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Apr. 6, 1835. He worked on the farm as soon as old enough, going to school in the winter season until he was in his nineteenth year (1854), when he commenced teaching in his native township, and taught during the winter for three successive winters. He also attended school at Freeland Seminary three months during the summer of 1855, and again in 1856. In the spring of 1857, after closing his school at Chestnut Ridge S. H., in Hilltown township, he went to Chicago, Ill., and engaged in the lumber business, in which he continued nine years. In the winter of 1859–60 he became a member of the Mennonite church at Line Lexington, Bucks Co., Pa. In January of 1864 he commenced the publication of the Herald of Truth and Der Herold der Wahrheit, and on the 19th of the same month was married to Salome Kratz, daughter of Jacob Kratz of Hilltown, Bucks Co., Penna. She was born on the 30th of August 1839. On the 28th of May 1865, he was ordained to the ministry in the Mennonite church near Gardner, Grundy Co., Ill. In April 1867 he removed to Elkhart, Ind., and established there the business house now known as the "Mennonite Publishing Company," first under his own name, and afterwards under the firm name of John F. Funk and Brother, after having associated with himself his brother Abraham K. Funk, and continued the business under this firm name until May 14, 1875, when the Mennonite Publishing Co., was organized. On the 6th of June 1892 he was chosen and ordained to the office of bishop over six congregations including Elkhart, Yellow Creek, Holdeman's, Olive, Salem and Nappanee districts in Elkhart Co., Ind. Children: (VI.) Martha Funk, bn. in Chicago, Ill. (VI.) Susan Mary, bn. and died in Chicago, Ill. (VI.) Phoebe Funk, bn. in Elkhart, Ind. Mrd. Abram B. Kolb, Jan. 3, 1893. He was born near Berlin, Waterloo Co., Ont. V. Sarah Funk, bn. in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Apr. 24, 1837; died Aug. 20, 1839.

V. Abraham Kratz Funk, bn. in Hilltown, Bucks Co., Jan. 20, 1840. His early years were spent on his father's farm. He attended school about four months usually in the winter, and a month or two during the summer. He commenced teaching in the public schools of the county, at the age of 18, under the county superintendency of Wm. H. Johnson. He attended school at Freeland Seminary, at Freeland, now Collegeville, Montgomery Co., in 1859, and the Excelsior Normal Institute, at Carversville, Bucks Co., in 1861. After spending five years in farming during the summer and teaching in winter, he went to Chicago, Ill., in the spring of 1863 and engaged in the Lumber business. After a residence of five years in Chicago, he went to Elkhart, and there entered into a co-partnership with his brother, under the firm name of John F. Funk and Brother, as publishers and booksellers. They continued the publication of the Herald of Truth and Der Herold der Wahrheit, and also issued during the continuance of this co-partnership a number of religious works, the most important of which was the great book of martyrs, in the German language, containing over 1100 quarto pages, and the complete works of Menno Simon, which was translated from the Holland and printed in English. In 1875 he became one of the principal stockholders in the Mennonite Publishing Co., which was then organized, and has since held the position of secretary and treasurer of that institution. He married Annie

M. Landis, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Geil) Landis, of Greer's Corner, near Dublin, Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 11, 1872. Mennonites. Children: (VI.) Mary Maude. (VI.) Edna Josephine. (VI.) Esther Winifred.

V. Jacob Silas Funk was bn. in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Apr. 13, 1842. He spent his early days on his father's farm, and received, as was customary in those days, a fair, common school education. He afterwards, during the early part of 1862 and the summer of 1863, spent two terms at the Excelsior Normal Institute, at Carversville, Bucks Co. He taught in the schools of his native county, from 1862 to 1865. In the spring of 1865 he gave up that vocation and went to Chicago, Ill., and engaged in the lumber business. On the 28th of Sept., of the same year he purchased a scholarship in the Eastman Business College of that city, and took a commercial course, attending evenings only. After four years' residence in Chicago, he determined to engage in business for himself, and accordingly, in the spring of 1869, located at Chillicothe, Mo., where he opened a lumber yard and commenced business on his own account. On the 15th of January following (1870), he was married to Annie K. Stover, daughter of Jonas Stover, of E. Rockhill Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. He afterwards became connected with the North Western Lumber Co., who had their mills at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and extensive yards at Hannibal, Mo.; and on the 20th of April 1880 moved with his family from Chillicothe to Hannibal. Afterwards when the duties of his position required him to be mostly in the neighborhood where the mills of the company were located, he found it more economical and convenient to have his family in that vicinity also, and accordingly, on the 20th of July 1885, he removed to Minneapolis, Minn. He continued with the above firm eleven years, during which time he gained with them the highest esteem and respect, both for his conscientious business integrity and his excellent qualifications for the work in which he was engaged. In the spring of 1890 he severed his relations with the N. W. Lumber Co., but the warm feeling of esteem and respect which he had won for himself during these extended business relations continued to the end of his life.

He took an active part in the various civil, social and religious movements of the day, and was always ready and willing to assist in all enterprises of public interest, and held continuously positions of responsibility and honor. Soon after his removal to Chillicothe, in 1869, he was elected superintendent of the Sunday-school of the Presbyterian church of that city, which position he held until his removal to Hannibal in 1880. He was converted and united with the Third Presbyterian church of Chicago during the time of his residence there. In 1871 or 72 he was elected elder of the First Presbyterian church of Chillicothe. He was secretary of the school board of that city, and through his influence was built the beautiful new school building, costing from $45,000 to $50,000. In 1875 he was also member of the city council. During the last three years of his residence in Chillicothe he was correspondent of the Globe Democrat, a republican paper of St. Louis. During the summer of 1890, after severing his connection with the N. W. L. Co., he, with A. Fiero, was appointed, by the lumber manufacturers of the N. W., to inspect the system of grading employed by the leading manufacturers of the north-west, and their report was received with much favor and satisfaction. After the completion of this commission, he became connected with the T. B. Scott Lumber Co., of Merrill, Wis., and during a business trip through Illinois and Indiana, he was taken sick with a severe bilious attack, and after nearly a week of suffering in hotels, in Terre Haute, Ind., Chicago, Ill., and on the road, he reached his home in Minneapolis, Minn., on the 22d of September. The disease assumed a complicated form which resulted in blood poisoning, and after three weeks more of intense suffering, which he bore with patience, he died on the 15th of Oct. 1890, aged 48 y., 6 m., 2 d. In early life he learned the milling trade, and worked as journeyman at Springfield. After marriage he purchased the old Landis farm in Springfield Twp., where he lived until his death. Mr. Funk's manners were bluff, speaking at all times what he thought was right and just. He was very fond of fishing and hunting, and in his 80th year would hunt for squirrels and rabbits, and fish with the fling net along the creek for sport.

In polities he was an ardent Republican, and a strong Anti-slavery man, and while doing all in his power to bring about the success of his principles, he never asked for any position or office. He was a member of the Lutheran church of Springfield of which he was an elder for a number of years. Children: William, Jonas, Joseph, John, Hester, David, Susanna, Tillman, Effie, Sarah.

V. John F. Swartley was born in New Britain Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., July 29, 1826. He went west later in life and owned land and farmed near Rolling Prairie, in La Porte Co., Ind. For a number of years during the latter part of his life he traveled through various parts of the United States and Canada, visiting the large cities and places of interest and making it a point, on the last several presidential inaugurations, to be in Washington. With this purpose in view he went east to visit his relatives in the neighborhood of Line Lexington, the place of his nativity, during the month of Nov. 1892, and about the first of Jan. 1893 proceeded to Washington to spend the winter and remain until after the inauguration of President-elect Cleveland. On the 23d of January he was found dead in his room, at his hotel, having been asphyxiated by gas escaping from the burner, which by an accident had been turned open. He was 66 years of age and a bachelor. His remains were buried in the Line Lexington Mennonite grave yard. He was a member of the Christian ch.

VI. Anna Rittenhouse, bn. in Lincoln Co., Ont., May 10, 1860. Mrd. Rev. Allen M. Fretz, of Bedminster, Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 5, 1884, (his second wife). He was bn. in Tinicum Twp., Bucks Co., Dec. 12, 1853. P. O., Bedminster, Pa. Farmer, and resides on the homestead of his grandfather, Christian Fretz, now owned by his father Ely. When 17 years old he was sent by his parents to the Mennonite Seminary at Wadsworth, Ohio. He subsequently attended one term at the Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, Pa., after which he taught school eleven terms, working on his father's farm during the summer months.

In the fall af 1882 he accepted the nomination of the Republican party as a candidate to the state legislature, which was tendered him; his party being in the minority in that year's campaign, he was, with the rest of the ticket defeated. In 1883 the second Mennonite church at Deep Run called him to the pastorate of that church, and he was accordingly ordained to the ministry by Bishop Moses Gottshall, Oct. 13, 1883, and installed pastor of the same. Feeling the pressing need of an English paper in the interest of his branch of the Mennonite church, he, with the aid of Rev. N. B. Grubb, pastor of the church in Philadelphia, succeeded in getting out the prospectus of "The Mennonite," which was laid before the conference and accepted as one of the periodicals of the church. He is still one of the editors of the paper, which has since been enlarged and improved, and has steadily increased in popularity and circulation since it was started. On Nov. 24, 1893 he was ordained bishop by Rev. Wm. S. Godshall, assisted by Rev. J. S. Moyer, at Deep Run, Pa., and has the spiritual oversight as bishop of the Deep Run and Souderton churches. At the latter place a neat and substantial church edifice has recently been finished, of which he was elected pastor in full charge Feb. 9, 1893. Children: (VII.) Jacob Rittenhouse Fretz, bn. V. William Rittenhouse, M. D., bn. in Lincoln Co., Ont., Sept. 5, 1852. Mrd. Mary, daughter of Wm. W. Moyer, of Campden, Ont., Apr. 2, 1874. Mr. Rittenhouse received a common school education, attending school in the winter months, and soon as he was old enough worked on his father's farm in the summer. Before he was quite seventeen, he obtained a certificate to teach, and on Jan. 1, 1870, took charge of his first school. For over thirteen years he labored in the school room, till failing in health he was compelled to seek other occupation. At the age of 22 while teaching a country school, at the modest sum of $400 a year, he was married. Three years later, he secured an appointment to a position in the Central school of St. Catharines, Ont. After four years of hard work, he was promoted to headmastership of the school. But the unceasing labor, the close confinement, and the loss of two of his children so wore upon his health, that in 1883 he resigned his position to seek some more active out door life. During the same year he began the study of medicine, and the next year he removed to Chicago; where in 1886 he received his degree at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and at once settled down in the same city to engage in the practice of his profession. Children: (VI.) Ernest Rittenhouse, bn. May 1, 1876. (VI.) Jane Rittenhouse, bn. Apr. 12, 1881; died Aug. 25, 1882. (VI.) Henry Rittenhouse, bn. Aug. 3, 1883; died Oct. 23, 1883.

IV. Anna Funk, bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., —. Mrd. Jacob Geil, —. He was bn. in Bucks Co., Feb. 3, 1803. P. O., Chalfont, Pa. Farmer. Menn's. Children: John, Enos, Samuel.

V. John F. Geil, bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 30, 1831. Mrd. Sarah A. Schofield, Apr. 5, 1860, in Livingston Co., Mich. She was bn. in Steuben Co., N. Y., Mar. 22, 1834. P. O., Williamsport, N. Dak. In early life Mr. Geil taught school for about ten years, and for twelve years was employed in making surveys for making and publishing county maps, mostly in Michigan. He later moved to Emmons Co.,

North Dakota, where he has been engaged for some years in farming.

In July 1889, he was appointed Deputy Clerk of the District court, for the reason that he understood the German language. His part of the work was to do business with the Russian German people that reside in Emmons Co., N. D. and which business consisted mainly of taking final proofs and filings for land. The Russian Germans greatly appreciated the favor of having in the office at the county seat, one who could converse and do business with them in their own language, and interpret and answer in German their German letters for them, and they soon came to the conclusion to do what they could to keep Mr. Geil in office at the county seat, and they soon had an opportunity of acting upon their conclusion. In Sept. 1890, Mr. Geil was nominated by a vote of 45 to 16 by the Republican county convention as a candidate for Register of Deeds, and in November of same year was elected to that office by a majority of 140, having received all the (150) Russian German votes, although said Russian Germans were nearly all Democrats.

In January 1892 John F. Geil was appointed a Notary Public in and for Emmons, N. D. by the Governor of the state. In the same year (1892) Mr. Geil was nominated by acclamation as a candidate for Register of Deeds, for another term, by both Republican and Democratic county conventions, and at the election of November 8th of same year was elected to that office unanimously,—receiving all the votes cast.

In addition to the duties performed as Register of Deeds, Mr. Geil does conveyancing, Notarial business, interpreting, and sundry clerical work. Since filling these offices his residence has been at Williamsport, the county seat. Meth. Ep. Children: Anna, Lincoln, Frederick.

VI. Anna E. Geil, bn. at Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 4, 1864, was engaged for a number of years in teaching public schools in Michigan, and North Dakota, in which she was very successful. She also taught vocal and instrumental music. She was married to Rev.

Charles S. Lane, Aug. 15, 1889. He was bn. in England, and his father was an Episcopal Clergyman. Rev. Mr. Lane was formerly a member of the North Dakota Methodist Episcopal Conference, and was stationed at Mandan, N. D., on the west side of the Missouri river. He was next assigned to Ardoch, and afterwards to Walhalla, both flourishing towns in the Red River Valley, N. D. In 1892, he was transferred to the Wisconsin conference and stationed at North Greenfield in that state, within the suburbs of Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Lane, had previous to the meeting of conference in Wisconsin, in 1892, attended the Moody training school in Chicago.

Rev. Charles S. Lane, is an eloquent and effective preacher, and an energetic worker in the "Vineyard of the Lord," and in Mrs. Lane, he has an able assistant. She had taken an active part in Sunday-school and other religious work previous to her marriage, and that work has since increased in activity and extent, according to the opportunities and demands of her position.

VI. Lincoln Geil, bn. at Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 26, 1865. Mrd. Etta Miles of Detroit, Mich., Sept. 21, 1889. She was bn. in Michigan, Dec. 6, 1870. At the time of his marriage he kept a General Store at Winchester, Emmons Co., N. Dak. Early in 1890 they moved to Pierre, South Dak., where they remained only a few months, and then moved to Detroit, Mich., where he was conductor on the Street Cars until the fall of 1891, when he removed to North Dakota, where he took up a homestead in Logan township, 6 miles south-east of Williamsport. He is now Deputy Clerk of the District Court of Emmons Co., N. D. Children: (VII.) Anna Geil, bn. in Detroit, Mich., July 2, 1890. (VII.) William Geil, bn. May 23, 1892; died Sept. 16, 1892.

V. Samuel F. Geil, bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., Sept. 28, 1841. Mr. Geil received a good academic education in his native county. In 1859 he removed to Cleveland, O., where he began the study of law. After passing through the usual studies he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the state of Ohio, Sept. 26, 1862. Having read law with Herrick and Barlow, he attended the Ohio State and Union Law College, at Cleveland, from which he graduated May 26, 1862. At the breaking out of the war in 1861, he was among the first to enter the volunteer service, and was appointed 1st Lieutenant of the 2d Regt. O. Cavalry, and remained until Dec. 11, 1861, when he resigned. In Nov. 1862 he removed to California, and took up his residence in Monterey Co., where he has been actively engaged in the practice of law. He served two terms as district Attorney of Monterey Co., and during his incumbency conducted many cases of great importance and public interest, in a highly satisfactory and successful manner. He has had a large and profitable practice for the last fifteen years. He is at the present time Attorney for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and other corporations. For the last ten years there has not been a case in the county in which he resides, of any importance, either civil or criminal, that he has not been engaged in. Immediately after his arrival in California, he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the state of California, and all the Federal courts. On Feb. 2, 1866 he married Josefa Sanchez, who with the two living children are members of the Roman Catholic church. Mrs. Geil descends from an old and prominent Spanish family of the region of country in which she lives. Her grandparents on her mother's side were native Californians. Her father, Don. Rafael Sanchez was private Secretary to Governor and General Micheltorena under Mexican rule. Children: (VI.) Samuel Geil, bn. Mar. 8, 1867; died Nov. 10, 1868. (VI.) Sammel Geil, bn. VI. Sylvester Moyer, D. D. S., bn. near Beamsville, Lincoln Co., Ont., Feb. 20, 1859, on the homestead of his grandfather where he spent the first 14 years of his life, and where he learned to prattle the "Pennsylvania Dutch," which has been of such inestimable benefit to him in his business life. When 14 years of age he with the family left the old homestead, and for nearly a year thereafter he tended bar in a hotel. During the winter months of the four following years he attended a country school, working for his board among the farmers. During the summer months he was variously employed in a Flax mill, team driver, and "hired man," and thus managed to give his parents considerable assistance, and pay the expenses of his education. When 18 years of age he passed a teachers' examination, and at once began to "train the young idea how to shoot." This he continued to do for ten consecutive years. But the confinement of the school room and too close attention to his studies in preparation for higher examinations somewhat overtaxed his physical powers. This coupled with a strong desire to cross the "Herring Pond" induced him to take a hurried trip to England during the summer of 1886. Before returning he spent a week in the "Land o'cakes" and took a short tramp among the farmers in the North of Ireland. The return trip from Glasgow to New York was the roughest of the season. For six days as deep called unto deep he was obliged to heave about everything except the anchor. However the trip proved highly beneficial to his health. Although fond of teaching, but from the fact that teachers are poorly rewarded, and stimulated also by mercenary motives and expectations, he directed his attention to the professions. He was then principal of the largest public school in Waterloo Co., and in receipt of the largest salary paid to a public school teacher in the county. But he felt that he had reached the meridian of his success, so he laid down the "ferrule" and took up the forceps. In due time he received the degree of L. D. S., and soon after the degree of D. D. S. from the University of Toronto. Before the last candidate had handed his papers to the examiners, he was "enroute" to Galt, where he had bought an established practice, and by the time that the result of his examination reached him, he was in his office ready for business and "thirsting for gore." His first patient was a charity negro. Ominous he thought. But the cloud had no "silver lining." Brighter days soon followed; and now at the age of 33 after two years in his own dental office, he can only say that he is not sorry that he chose this as his profession. He was mrd. to Jennie Hunter, Oct. 12, 1886. P. O., Galt, Ont. Dentist. Presbyterian. Children: (VII.) Leslie Clare Moyer. (VII.) Alice Maud Moyer.

They took shelter under a tree, when they were struck by lightning, and both instantly killed. Their wives running out to see if any barns were struck, saw the horses running around the field, and went to learn the cause. They soon noticed a tree smoking, went to it and saw their husbands lying on each side of it with their feet nearly touching each other. One child: (VII.) Elva Moyer, bn. —; died —.

church of Smithville circuit, and was licensed as an exhorter the same year, by the Quarterly Conference, and placed on the circuit plan, with an appointment for every two weeks, which he filled for two years. In 1865 he was granted local preacher's license by the Beamsville Quarterly Conference, and preached every Sabbath for ten years. In 1875 he connected himself with the Evangelical Association, under the superintendency of Rev. S. N. Moyer, and preached one year on the Campden and Gainsboro circuit, traveling about thirty miles to his appointments, and preaching twice every Sabbath. On account of the German work, he not being able to preach in the German language, the following year he returned to the Wesleyan Methodist church as local preacher on Beamsville circuit, preaching at Beamsville and other points every Sabbath until 1882, when a change was made in the circuit, after which he traveled about twenty miles every Sabbath preaching twice, for two years, Rev. J. Rowe, preacher in charge. Since 1885 he has preached every Sabbath morning at Jordan Station, at which place he has preached for twenty-five years. Children: Sarah, Alberta, James.

VI. Jerome F. Honsberger, M. D., bn. in Haldimand Co., Ont., Oct. 6, 1859. Mrd. Alberta C. Stoddard, of Delhi, Ont., Oct. 14, 1890. P. O., Delhi, Ont. Methodists. Dr. Honsberger received his early education in the district schools, going to school during the winter months, and during the summer assisted on his father's farm. But his ambitious young mind soon made him dissatisfied with his limited education, and the small opportunities which a farm life afforded for advancement. Accordingly at the age of 17, he, with his brother, began to prepare himself for the 3d class teachers' examination, and with the help of the lady teacher who boarded in their home, by improving every spare moment often studying till midnight after a hard day's work on the farm, they passed the examination successfully. In the fall succeeding the examination he attended the Model School, in Caledonia, obtained his certificate, and at the beginning of the New Year, began teaching. After teaching for 3 years, he spent a term at the Collegiate Institute, Brantford, and in July 1880, passed the 2d class teachers' examination there, carrying off a scholarship given by that Institution for proficiency. He next attended the Normal School at Toronto, obtained his Professional 2d class certificate, and taught for two years more. But as is often the case he was only using the profession of teaching as a stepping-stone to something higher. Ever since his boyhood he had made up his mind to be a doctor, and now he was about to enter upon the fulfillment of that dream. In the fall of 1882, he began his medical course at Trinity Medical College, Toronto, passed his examinations successfully at the end of each year, and graduated in March 1886, both from Trinity Medical College and Trinity University, standing at the head of his class at the University. A few weeks later he sailed for England, where he spent six months continuing his studies in the largest hospital, and under the most distinguished physicians of London. Here he passed another examination, taking the degree of Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians, of England. He returned in November, and in the following spring located in Delhi, a thriving little town in Norfolk Co., Ont., where he has worked a large and lucrative practice. Though he has been less than six years in actual practice, Dr. Honsberger is already widely known throughout that district as a clever young physician, whose ability is sure to gain for him a leading place in his profession.

He then taught school in Niagara Twp., Lincoln Co. for two years, after which he went to the McGill University, Montreal, where he remained two years. He then came to New York, and studied one year in the law department of the University of New York, after which he was admitted to the New York Bar. In 1884 he went abroad and remained in England two years for the benefit of his health, and recreation. On his return he located in New York where he has been since engaged in the practice of law. In early life Mr. Fry followed carpentering in the neighborhood of the "Twenty" in Ont. In 1852 he moved to South Cayuga, Ont., where for about a year he managed a general store for James Henry of Beamsville. In 1853 he purchased the stock and good will from Mr. Henry, and secured the appointment of Post Master, when the office was first established in the same year, and carried on the business (general store and post office) successfully for over 30 years. Having provided a comfortable home for his wife and twelve children he retired from business about 1886, with an income sufficient for all family needs and comforts. He for many years also held the office of Clerk and Treasurer of the township, and for over thirty years discharged the duties of local preacher of the Evangelical Association ch., in a very acceptable manner. He was very enthusiastic in all church and Sunday school work. Children: Matilda, Maria, Menno, Pricilla, Isaac, John, Mary, Solomon, Ellen, Allen, Emily, Martha.

DANIEL WISMER, SON OF JACOB WISMER.

II. Daniel Wismer, bn. —; died —. He was sickly, and was provided for by his brother Abraham, until his (Daniel's) death. His portion of his father's estate he willed to his brother Abraham, on condition that he provide for and take care of him during his life time, which on falling due was paid to Abraham early in 1795.

JOHN WISMER, SON OF JACOB WISMER.

II. John Wismer, bn. —; died in 1794. He lived with Jacob Angeny, Jr., where he died. From Feb. 1784, until his death he was looked after by his brother Henry who furnished his wearing apparel, &c. paying for same out of his own (John Wismer's) estate. The £3. 6s. willed by Jacob Souder, and paid into the hands of his brother Henry, and his portion of his father's estate, also in Henry's care, the remainder of which after his (John Wismer's) death was paid in 1795 to his remaining brothers and sisters, is conclusive evidence that he had no issue. Among the items of sickness and funeral expenses paid to Jacob Angeny, Jr., by Henry Wismer, in accordance with the custom of the times, was "2 gallons and 3 quarts of whiskey for John's burying 10 shillings 2 pence.

V. Catharine K. Wismer, bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., May 12, 1842. Mrd. Rev. Louis Trautman, Apr. 9, 1862. He was bn. in Moatpellier, France, emigrated to this country in early childhood with his parents, and settled in Allegheny City, Pa. At about the age of 16 years he entered a course of studies preparatory to the ministry at the Academy at Zellienople, Butler Co., Pa., and completing his studies at the Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, and the Theological Seminary of the same place. He was ordained to the ministry of the Lutheran church in 1861, and the same year took charge of the Lutheran church at Ostdand, Washington Co., Ohio, preaching in both the English and German languages. He later moved to

Canton, Ohio and took charge of a congregation near that place, together with another congregation near Massillon, Ohio where he served until within a few weeks of his death which occurred on March 22, 1865 in Canton, O., where he is buried. Finished his course as law student, and was admitted to the Allegheny county bar, on Saturday, March 18, 1893, having passed with the highest honors. S.—Catharine mrd. second husband, Josiah B. Nobbs. He died Feb. 13, 1893, in the 66th year of his age. He was a well known resident of the Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh, Pa., and no other man in the ward has been more thoroughly identified with its interests than Mr. Nobbs, and his death will be universally regretted. Mr. Nobbs was born in London, England, Nov. 2, 1827, and came to America when quite young. For over half a century he has been a resident of the Twelfth ward. For a number of years he was superintendent of the metal working department of the Pennsylvania railroad shop, and has been engaged in his present business, that of tinsmith, since before the war. He has always been an ardent Republican and prominently identified with the interests of the community, business and political. Several times he has been elected to councils, to the school board and to the office of alderman, and at the time of his death was the treasurer of the O'Hara school board, and one of the warmest friends and supporters of that institution. He was president of the Aeme Building & Loan Association, member of the Knights of the Mystic Chain, of the American Legion of Honor, Royal Arcanum, Equitable Aid Union and United Workmen. His life has been one of uprightness and integrity. Lutheran's. Children: (VI.) Edmund Stanton Nobbs, bn. Sept. 22, 1871; died May 30, 1872. (VI.) Lillian Mabel Nobbs, bn. Apr. 7, 1873. Student. V. Rev. Isaac K. Wismer, bn. in Bucks Co., Pa., Sept. 24, 1853. Mrd. Mary Louisa Kirkbride, July 1, 1885. P. O., Latrobe, Pa. When Mr. Wismer was $3\frac{1}{2}$ years of age his father died, and a year later his mother took the two youngest of the family (Martha and himself), and moved to Carversville, Pa., where they lived four years, and where he attended the village school, and laid the foundation of his education. When ten years old he went to live near the old home-stead, with Aaron S. Meyers, a farmer, with whom he remained four years, after which he lived with his brother, Hartman K. Wismer, near Plumsteadville for four years, attending school in the winter season. When 18 years old he hired to Isaac Gross, a neighboring farmer. In the spring of 1872, he went to Philadelphia, and engaged in the harness making trade with his brother Edmund K. Wismer. After several years, he felt moved to prepare himself for the ministry, and accordingly entered a "select" school for young men and boys, George Eastburn, M. A., Principal, from which he graduated in June 1878, and was at once examined to enter the University of Pennsylvania, and having received a free scholarship entered that institution in Sept. 1878 from which he graduated in June 1882. In Sept. of the same year he entered the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Phila., from which he graduated in May 1885, and was ordained to the ministry at the meeting of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania June 2, 1885. He was called to, and accepted the pastorate of the Lutheran church at Du Bois, Clearfield Co., Pa., Oct. 1, 1885, and after a pastorate of six years and eight months, he resigned and accepted a call to the pastorate of the Lutheran church of Latrobe, Westmoreland Co., Pa., June 1, 1892. IV. David Wismer, bn. in Markham Twp., Ont., Dec. 22, 1807; died Sept. 8, 1890. Mrd. Mary Toman, Oct. 15, 1826. She was bn. Aug. 13, 1810; died July 16, 1883. They began married life with very little of this world's goods, but by industry and frugality they became the possessors of some property. They settled on Lot 17, Con. 7, in Markham Twp., Ont., which they cleared, and on which they resided until they died. They were members of the Christian church, of which he was a Deacon for many years, and to which in early life they walked and carried the baby, the distance being six miles. They lived together 57 years, and celebrated their golden wedding on Monday, Oct. 16, 1876. (The wedding day falling on Sunday.)

The family consisted of 14 children, of whom 11 were living. Of the 65 living descendants, including husbands and wives, 43 were present at the golden wedding. Twenty-two were prevented from attending on account of sickness, and otherwise. The table was elaborately spread, in the center of which stood a six story cake with flags rising from the center, on which the words "Welcome Home" were beautifully laid in gold leaf. Immediately before eating, the children sang the well known hymn, "Welcome Home," after which David Wismer and wife, their children with their husbands and wives, partook of the refreshments, and the grandchildren finishing the repast.

The artist, Mr. Tomlinson, of Stouffville, being present, a picture of the family group was admirably taken, after which the various golden, and other presents, were placed on platters, and the company gathered in the parlor to witness the presentation of the gifts, and to listen to an address by John Milne, one of the sons-in-law, which was as follows:

Dear Parents:—It is with mingled feelings of regret and pleasure that we are here assembled together to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding day. With feelings of regret that on account of sickness and other unavoidable causes there are some of our children deprived of the privilege of meeting with us to-day and partaking alike of the pleasant associations and remembrances that this meeting will afford to us all; and also with regret that in the course of nature there is no human probability or likelihood that so many of this family will ever be permitted to meet you again on this side of eternity. But still we meet with united feelings of pleasure to know that God in His divine providence has graciously permitted you and us to enjoy a meeting of this kind, one which is granted to but few in this world. When we, your children, cast our minds back through our younger years we cannot but admire and derive great pleasure in contemplating the care and diligence you manifested in raising so large a family in such a manner as would enable them all to become honest, industrious and useful members of society and we trust in this respect your efforts have not been altogether in vain. We cannot but call to mind that in all your teachings you did not forget to continually draw our attention to the all important fact that there was an All-wise Providence to whom we should always look for guidance and support through our walks in this life. We must now congratulate you that God has so far blessed you with health, strength of mind and body, and prosperity in the things of this world far above the average of those of your ages, and now, dear parents, as we are met together on an occasion never to be forgotten, and one that will never occur again during our lives and in token of our love for you, and as remembrances to be cherished by you, dear father, we present you with these few small gifts, and to you dear mother we also present a few tokens of our love and esteem. These gifts, though small in themselves and representing but little in value, still they are rich in the love and esteem which we have towards you. Our united prayer is that God in His goodness may see fit to bless you both with many years of happy and peaceful companionship together, and when you are done with all the troubles and trials of this earthly career, you may have a seat in that eternal home promised to those who remain faithful to the end; and also when we, your children, and our families, have done with the things of this life, our humble prayer is that we may be permitted to meet with you there and be as one happy family united in Heaven. In conclusion we all say for once more, God bless you and all your posterity. Amen.

After the address the hymn “Shall we gather at the River,” was heartily and feelingly sung by all.

Mrs. Wismer responded in a few words, by thanking her children and grandchildren for the love and esteem shown by them, and for the harmony exhibited towards each other, and presented each with a piece of the wedding cake.

Mr. Wismer also responded in a very interesting manner, referring back to the time when his father and mother with their six children, in the year 1805, moved from Bucks Co., Pa., to Markham, Ont., and described many of the trials the pioneers encountered, the implements used by them, and his wedding trip 50 years ago, when he and his wife went on horseback to get married. He then closed by thanking, in a very impressive manner, his children and grandchildren for the presents made to him and their mother, urging them to diligence and honest dealings in their duties of this life. Children: Nancy, Levi, Eli, Salome, Joseph, Philemon, Sarah, Lydia, Barbara, Enos, Albertina, Elijah, Catharine, Nellie.

V. Albertina Wismer, bn. in Markham Twp., Ont., Feb. 12, 1846. Mrd. James Logie, Nov. 9, 1862. He was born on a Mill farm in Morayshire, Scotland, Apr. 3, 1838. His mother died while he was an infant. At 17 years of age he was compelled to seek on this side of the Atlantic a home which unhappily Scotia denies to so many of her sons. Chopping and clearing land occupied the first five years of his experience in Canada, when he was appointed teacher in the school in Feversham, county of Grey, with no other qualification than youth, energy, and the limited education acquired at the Parochial school in his native parish. After three years service as teacher, he engaged in business in Feversham, at which he continued with varied success in several towns in Canada, when, in 1885, he moved to Michigan with his family and engaged in business in Ithaca, Gratiot county. During 1887 he was appointed Steward of Alma College, an institution chartered by the state, and under the care of the Presbyterian Synod of Michigan, where he and wife now reside. Presbyterians. IV. Zenas W. Black, bn. Oct. 22, 1800; died Dec. 1889. Mrd. Susanna, daughter of Capt. Emanuel Solliday, of the war of 1812. She was born Aug. 5, 1805; died —. Baptists. Children: William, Wilhelmina, Jeremiah, Mary, Emanuel, Cyrus, Hannah, Morris, Zenas, John.

V. William S. Black, bn. in Tinicum township, Bucks Co., Apr. 24, 1823. Mrd. Lydia Ann Gilbert, Feb. 22, 1849. She died Feb. 5, 1855. (VI.) Two children, (stillborn).—William mrd. second wife, Margery Anna Lindsay, Dec. 22, 1857. P. O., Harrisburg, Pa. Children: William, Charles, Franklin, Helen, William, Richard, Caroline.

Mr. Black, when a boy about two years old, was taken by his grandmother Catharine Black, (Nee Wismer), with whom he lived until she died when he was about ten years old. During the time he lived with his grandmother he attended school very regularly winter and summer; but at that time the country school was only an apology for a school, as many of the teachers were very indifferent, in fact, some of the pupils were better qualified to teach than the teacher. After his grandmother's death he went home to his father and mother for a short time, and then was placed with a farmer in Bedminster Twp., to do the chores in and around the house and barn and go to school, which was a very advantageous change to him so far as the school was concerned. He attended Deep Run school during those two years most of the time, winter and summer. An excellent teacher had charge of the school who took great pride in seeing his pupils learn.

At the close of his farm life Mr. Black began to look around for something to do whereby he could realize money for his labor. The best paying offer was that of "tow boy" on the canal, which his mother opposed very much, and also gave him some advice which he has never forgotten, and which no doubt has kept him out of many difficulties. The people, at least some of them, at that day thought the occupation of a boatman was degrading. But notwithstanding some "tow boys" have risen to exalted stations—one to the Presidency of the United States, and another to the Attorney Generalship of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In the fall of 1839, Mr. Black hung up the tow line for good and cast his eye in another direction. In December 1839 his father bound him an apprentice, to learn the art and mystery of the printing business, to Gen. John S. Bryan, then the publisher of the Doylestown Democrat, and the printing office was the college from which he graduated in 1844. His master was always kind to him and trusted him implicitly with much of the financial matters in the establishment. In those days a boy learning the printing business in a country office had three days in the office, and three days out carrying the mail and newspapers. That system has long since been abolished.

Being free in 1844 he made a pilgrimage to Philadelphia in search of employment, which he soon secured, and where he worked for twenty years, ten of these years he was foreman of the establishment at a good salary for those days. In March 1865 he moved to New Castle, Pa., where he published the New Castle Gazette and Lawrence County Democrat for some fourteen or fifteen years, but did not get rich, being more anxious to help others than himself. In 1872 he was elected Mayor of the City of New Castle, Pa., as a Democrat, over his Republican opponent, his majority being 149 votes. The usual Republican majority in the city was from six to eight hundred.

On the first day of January 1879 he was appointed to a clerkship in the Auditor General's Department of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In May 1881 the administration changed and consequently the clerks changed. He then went to Watsontown, Northumberland county, and conducted a newspaper establishment for some time, when he was persuaded to take a clerkship in a bank—the hardest work he ever did—the business was entirely new to him, having no experience at all in that line of business. After four years he relinquished his position in the bank and went back to the printing business, at which he was working when elected Alderman of the Sixth Ward of the City of Harrisburg.

CHRISTIAN WISMER, SON OF JACOB WISMER.

H. Christian Wismer, bn. —; died Feb. 20, 1795. At the close of his life he resided with Jacob Angeny, Jr. His share of his father's estate, and a small legacy from Jacob Sowder, was held in trust by Henry Wismer. In 1796 all that remained of Christian's estate was divided among his remaining brothers and sisters. The above division of his estate is also conclusive evidence that he had no issue. A prominent item among his funeral expenses is 2 gallons and 2 quarts of whiskey.

"In drawing conclusions from Henry Wismer's Day Book, we are led to believe that John and Christian were the most prominent of the three wild sons of Jacob Wismer the first."

DESCENDANTS OF FELIX WISMER OF WYTIKON, SWITZERLAND.

I. — Wismer, the earliest ancestor of this branch of whom we have any information, was a farmer and lived in the village of Wytikon, Canton Zurich, Switzerland. The village of Wytikon is situated three miles from Zurich, and at one time consisted of 34 families, 15 families bearing the name of Wismer. He is supposed to have belonged to the Reformed church.* He had but one child, a son:

II. Felix Wismer, born in Wytikon, Switzerland, and lived on the old homestead. Is also supposed to have belonged to the Reformed church. And also had but one child, a son:

III. John Wismer, born in Wytikon, Canton Zurich, Switzerland, in Oct. 1778; died in 1849. He was a farmer, and inherited the old homestead from his father. In early life he married, but his wife died soon after, leaving no issue. In 1829 he married a widow Regula Glättly, (Nee Muller). After the death of her husband she emigrated to the United States with her sons, and died in 1877 aged 79 years. Members of the Reformed church of Switzerland. Children: John, Henry, Elizabeth, Jacob, Solomon.

IV. John Wismer, bn. in Wytikon, Canton Zurich, Switzerland, in 1830. Emigrated to the United States in 1850. P. O., Olney, Oregon. No family.

* The Reformed church was the state church, and was closely guarded by the government. In former years it suppressed every other religious organization.

IV. Henry Wismer, bn. in Wyticon, Canton Zurich, Switzerland, Apr. 28, 1832. Emigrated to the United States in 1855. After landing he at once set out for Dubuque, Iowa, where he arrived Mar. 12th. In this city he resided until 1863. In the spring of this year he moved with his mother to Dayton Twp., Bremer Co., Iowa, where he purchased 80 acres of land, to which he soon added 40 acres more. At this time Dayton Twp. had but few settlers, and his nearest neighbors lived a mile distant. On Sept. 16, 1865, he was married to Rosina Messerly. In the fall of 1890 he sold his farm in Dayton Twp., and purchased ten acres in Sumner, Iowa. On the 3d of Oct., 1890, while he and wife were driving through a part of Sumner on the way to their purchase on which they were building a new house, the horse took fright as they turned a corner, the wagon was upset and they were hurled to the ground. Mr. Wismer was slightly injured, but Mrs. Wismer died Oct. 14, 1890 from the effects of injuries received by the accident. P. O., Sumner, Iowa. Presbyterians. Children: Bennie, A —, Edward, Leila, Martha.

V. Bennie H. Wismer, bn. July 16, 1866; died Feb. 8, 1868.

V. A. J. Wismer, bn. in Bremer Co., Iowa, Feb. 20, 1868. He remained at home on the farm until he was 21 years of age, and attended the district school during the winter. He is now engaged in the restaurant business in Sumner, Iowa.

V. Edward A. Wismer, bn. in Bremer Co., Iowa, Mar. 15, 1870. Was brought up on his father's farm, and received his education in the public school. Tonsorial artist in Sumner, Iowa. Presbyterian.

V. Leila E. Wismer, bn. in Bremer Co., Iowa, Dec. 31, 1872. Mrd. F. M. Lyon, in 1890. P. O., Sumner, Iowa. Presbyterian. One child: (VI.) Edna Lucile Lyon, bn. Jan. 31, 1892.
